Plug-in Activation Procedure

FBmn Software

O. Receive the Serial Number email

- When you purchase a new product you receive an email with:
 - Your serial number
 - Instructions to activate your license

Dear Customer,

Thank you very much for your confidence and for purchasing our plug-in. Please find below your serial number:

CARLAN-STAFTS IVERSE YORKEP SAGAVE

To activate your license:

- If you did not do so yet, download an evaluation license of the plug-in latest version through this form, and install it.
 - 2. Uninstall any previous version of the plug-in.
- Run the FBmn Software Activate tool (located in the Windows Start menu, All Programs > FBmn Software > ColorMatch plug-in.
- Open a web browser and navigate to http://www.fbmn- software.com/activate.html. If you don't have an internet connection, this may be done on a separate computer.
- 5. In the web form, enter your full name (first name + last name), a valid email address, the serial number given in this email, and the magic code as displayed in the Activate program (preferably by copy-and-paste to avoid any mistake).
- Validate the form, you will then receive in a few seconds an email with an activation code and a reminder of your registered full name and serial number.
- Enter this information in the Activate program and click OK. We strongly recommend that you use copy-and-paste to avoid any typo.
- 8. Restart Vegas. If you get an error dialog box while using the plug-in, saying that the product evaluation licensed has expired or was incorrectly installed, it probably means that you have entered invalid data in Activate: run Activate again, and re-enter your full name, your serial number and your activation key as given in the email. Make sure you do not enter any leading or trailing space.

1. Download and install the plug-in

- Follow the given link given (Step 1 of the email)
- Enter your email address
- Click Download
